Alice wants you to start working on an order form for customers who want to place their orders online using the Red Ball Pizza Web site. She suggests that you create a prototype page in which customers can enter their contact information for delivery and provide the ingredients for the pizza they want Red Ball Pizza to make for them. Alice wants you to validate the Web form as much as possible before it is sent to the Web server. She has created the file `regex.txt`, which contains regular expression patterns for validating the customer's phone number and preferred time of delivery.

A preview of the form you'll create is shown in Figure 6-77 as it appears in the Opera browser.
